

Starr Songs

In honor of the retirement of Starr Fioca

July 31, 2011

Brightest and Best (Tune: Hymn 303)

Brightest and best of the Starrs of the organ,

Filling our worship with music, hymns, and praise!

Preludes and postludes and

Liturgies and anthems --

Singing with joy in the harmonies we raise!

Brightest and best of the Starrs of the organ,

Filling our worship with melodies divine!

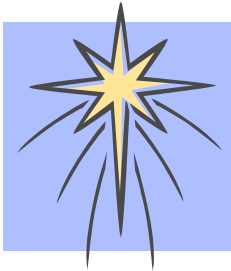

Love from our hearts

Flows to you in benediction:

“Now may God bless you, His face on you shine!”

Our Sunday Starr, How Fair and Bright! (Tune: Hymn 308)

Our Sunday Starr, How fair and bright!

Your music fills us with delight!

Your gifts to us a blessing!

In song you've led us through the years

Through joys and sorrows, laughter, tears.

Our faith and hope confessing.

We do thank you

Bells are ringing!

Choirs sing in Celebration!

For your gifts to Reformation!
